Mercado Negro de Mariscos, located at Av. Miramar 16 in Ensenada's Zona Centro, is a must-visit destination for seafood enthusiasts. This iconic seafood market has been serving the freshest catches since the 1950s, offering a variety of dishes that showcase the rich maritime heritage of Baja California.

Menu Highlights at Mercado Negro de Mariscos

The menu at Mercado Negro de Mariscos is a celebration of the ocean's bounty, featuring an array of dishes crafted from locally sourced seafood. While the specific offerings may vary, the market is renowned for its exceptional quality and freshness. Patrons can expect to find:

Fish Tacos: A staple of Ensenada's culinary scene, these tacos are made with battered and fried fish, served in soft corn tortillas, and topped with fresh salsa and shredded cabbage.

Ceviche: A refreshing dish made from raw fish marinated in citrus juices, mixed with onions, cilantro, and other seasonings.

Seafood Cocktails: Chilled mixtures of shrimp, octopus, and other seafood, combined with tomato sauce, lime, and spices.

Fresh Oysters and Clams: Served raw or lightly seasoned, these shellfish are a testament to the region's rich marine life.

Lobster and Crab: Prepared in various styles, these dishes highlight the luxurious flavors of Baja's coastal waters.
